

Enabling people and organizations to perform at their highest potential

In today's rapidly changing business environment, organizations are increasingly realizing the intrinsic value of their employees and the role they play in initiative success, productivity and engagement. We know leaders often have clear vision of where they want to take their business next. However, a well-defined execution strategy to realize that vision is critical to their success. GP Strategies® has more than 50 years' experience working with organizations to bring their strategies to life.

Founded in 1966, GP Strategies is a leading workforce transformation partner – a truly dedicated global provider in the marketplace delivering custom learning solutions. Our transformation focus, combined with deep listening, a customer-centric approach, and innovative expertise, enables our clients to routinely achieve superior business and operational results from evidence-driven and technology agnostic recommendations.

We are at our best when driving innovation – integrating leading technologies, developing new learning paradigms, and instituting fresh business processes and measurement approaches to meet the needs of everyone in your organization from corner-office management to front-line employees.

GP Strategies offers a broad range of services that focus on:

- Helping leadership fully realize their vision
- Executing the strategy at pace to deliver intended business results
- Building a confident and engaged workforce with clear expectations
- Developing innovative solutions to support the workforce of the future
- Adoption of enterprise-wide technology systems
