Selection to the 2021 Training Industry Top IT Training Companies Lists was based on the following criteria:

- Breadth and quality of program and services.
- Ability to deliver training in various modalities.
- Industry visibility, innovation and impact in the IT and technical training market.
- Strength of clients and geographic reach.
- Company size and growth potential.

“This year’s Top 20 IT Training Companies are leading innovators in the IT training market. In this ever-changing market, these companies have showed quick adaptation in providing virtual training to continue delivering efficient and engaging content,” said Jessica Schue, market research associate at Training Industry, Inc. “The variety of IT specialization within this list shows the wide range of services offered within the market; with a focus on blended and hybrid learning, these organizations provided new innovative techniques and practices.”

“The companies on this year’s IT Training Watch List provide a breadth of services and program offerings, ensuring learners have the skills they need for their organization’s IT challenges,” said Danielle Draewell, market research analyst at Training Industry, Inc. “These companies upskill and reskill employees on popular topics such as cybersecurity, cloud computing, data analysis and more to meet the demand of the learners in an ever-evolving market.”
